

Lesson Thirteen

Review

Introduction:

This last lesson consists of a group project to act as a review of lessons one through twelve. This provides the class with an opportunity to put to use all of the principles discussed throughout this curriculum.

Objectives:

- To review the topics discussed.
- To put into use the principles learned through an in-class exercise.

Suggested Activity:

A Group Project

Have the class write a script for a play, a music video, or a public service announcement. The idea is to incorporate as many aspects of this curriculum as possible in a fun and creative final exhibition. This project could be performed for the whole school.

A Final Project

Have each student write a song, poem, or short story entitled Why Saving Makes "Cents" to Me.
